

THE CHANCELLOR

LeadImpact University is at the forefront of pioneering change in the leadership of this generation, and future generations to come. We are not just raising leaders, but the kind of leaders that will make an everlasting impact on the world and the kingdom of God. Leading this groundbreaking and innovative institution is something I am very excited about

I am passionate about quality higher education. I strongly believe that it plays a crucial role in preparing our future leaders and will help solve many of our vexing societal challenges.

Archbishop Dr.
Cletus Bassey

OUR MISSION

Our mission as a University is to raise trustworthy leaders who will impact their communities and transform lives. It is our desire to create a hunger for excellence and integrity in every student through our teachings, training, and mentorship relationships while nurturing and encouraging personal development.
